

Czech Language Credit and Exam Requirements – General Medicine, 2nd Year

Required textbook:

ADAMOVIČOVÁ, A. – IVANOVOVÁ, D. – HRDLIČKA, M. Basic Czech II. Praha: Karolinum, 2020.

The final exam will also cover all materials presented in the course (see also <https://www.lf.upol.cz/cja/>).

LESSONS

Students must be in class on time. Late arrivals are not tolerated and students arriving late will be considered absent.

Students are supposed to participate actively in seminars which implies their concentration, being sufficiently prepared, doing homework assigned by the teacher.

Walking out of the classroom, using electronic equipment for other than lesson's purposes or any disruptive behaviour will not be tolerated.

10% of absences per semester can be unexcused and accepted without the duty to substitute the missing lesson. One absence can be substituted by attending another group (after consulting the teacher), each other subsequent absence will be recognized as an excused absence only if students present evidence of illness or any other event to the head of the Department of Foreign Languages. The substitution will be registered and signed by the teacher and the student as well.

CREDIT TEST

Only in case they have fulfilled all the required duties, students are allowed to take the credit test.

The test will be held in the last class of the semester or within the examination period (dates will be published in the electronic system). Individual requests concerning the timing of the tests will not be accepted. Students must register electronically and will have three attempts to pass the test. The minimum score to pass is 66%.

Using any electronic equipment and the restroom during the test, talking to other students as well as any other way of cheating in the course of the test mean an immediate disqualification.

Students who pass each of three short tests written during the semester with the minimum score of 87% are relieved of the duty to take the credit test.

ORAL EXAM

Students must register electronically and will have three attempts to pass the exam. Using any electronic equipment or cheating in the course of the exam mean an immediate disqualification.

The oral exam consists of three parts:

1. Case history taking

Students are expected to show the ability to form questions concerning a patient's medical history.

2. Discussion

Students are expected to display their understanding of basic grammatical principles (e.g. imperative forms) and Czech language skills by being able to discuss topics:

Lidské tělo
Fyzický vzhled
Životní styl
Anamnéza
Bolest
Nemoci a příznaky

3. Reading and translating

Students are expected to be able to read and translate a simple written text. They are allowed to use a dictionary to prove their ability to deal with unfamiliar words and grammatical structures.
